Preface

The School Grammar series has been specially designed to meet the needs of the learners in schools today. This graded grammar course comprising eight books is intended for the primary and middle schools (classes 1 to 8).

The books are graded as per the level of the students to facilitate easy understanding of the subject. They cover all aspects of English language teaching such as parts of speech, structures, language, spelling, punctuation, comprehension and composition. The colourful illustrations make learning grammar interesting and the innovative activities make the subject fun!

The various rules of grammar are peppered all over the pages of the book to help the students improve their expression and understand the elements of the language, alongside. The School Grammar has been conceived keeping in mind the needs of the language of the teachers as well as the students. The exhaustive drill exercises in the book following appropriate teaching strategies help to make an effective activity-based teaching-learning programme both at school and home. We hope that you will find the series both useful and different from other books on Grammar.

Suggestions for further improvement from the users of this series will be deeply appreciated and gratefully acknowledged.

Two little monkeys jumping on the bed,
One falls down and bumps his head.
Mama calls two doctors, the doctors say
No more monkeys jumping on the bed.

One little monkey jumping on the bed,
He falls down and bumps his head.
Mama calls one doctor, the doctor says
Not even one monkey jumping on the bed.

E. Write any five doing words given in the poem.

12 Adverbs

Let's begin with a clap-snap drill.

Clap-clap-clap-snap-snap-clap-clap-clap

Do this four times, each time in a different way.

- First time – loudly
- Second time – softly
- Third time – slowly
- Fourth time – quickly

Action or doing words tell us what people, animals and things do. For example:

- I run.
- Dogs bark.
- Wheels turn.

Clap and snap are actions. Loudly, softly, slowly, and quickly are words that tell us how you clapped and snapped.

The words that tell us how an action happens are called adverbs. Adverbs answer the question how? Most adverbs end with -ly.

A. Fill in the blanks with '-ly' words.

1. Bill is walking _____ (slow). His shoe is torn.
